

Episode # 32 Pivot Point Story: Faye Browne

Faye's approach to navigating pivots started at the age of 10. Her creativity was forged on the back of having to be innovative to have what she truly wanted. Faye has carried this throughout her life. When challenges confront her she has learnt how to ask herself better questions to move her towards where she wants to go.

Top Tips

Simple steps to action

Never give up (if it doesn't work this way there is always another way)

Change the way you think about the situation why you cant to how you can.

Watch your self talk

Its easy to get stuck in a downward spiral with self talk. Use your self talk to build yourself up

Its all the little things that make the difference

Its never one big thing that needs to change to make a difference. It's always many minor things.

Insta: <https://www.instagram.com/fayemottofashions/>

Facebook link: <https://www.facebook.com/faye.browne> -

Website: <https://www.motto.com.au/>