

Episode # 20 Pivot Point Story: Brad Atkins

Brad 's path to passion was a journey. From leaving the suit behind taking the skills he had and channeling them into his passion. He and his partner Matt have created a sustainable vineyard delivering a destination and experience of food and wine. Steels Gate is the culmination of using his head and his heart. Through all the challenges he took the time to pause, reflect and make sure this is what he and his partner yearned for their family.
